Introduction and Welcome

The meeting was convened by Dr. Nishtha Shukla, Principal and chairperson of the Discipline Committee. The primary focus was to outline the objectives and responsibilities of the committee, as well as to review the existing rules and regulations for students.

Review of Objectives and Responsibilities

The committee outlined its key objectives, which include:

- Formulating policies to uphold discipline within the college.
- Addressing and resolving student-related issues.
- Educating students about discipline rules and regulations.
- Enforcing disciplinary measures in cases of misconduct.

The importance of fostering a conducive academic environment was emphasized, along with ensuring that all students are informed about the rules in place.

Review of Rules and Regulations

The committee examined various rules that students must adhere to, such as:

- Wearing the college uniform and displaying identity cards.
- Attending classes regularly.
- Avoiding any form of physical or verbal confrontation.
- Prohibiting cell phone usage during class hours.
- Maintaining a smoke-free, tobacco-free, and alcohol-free campus.

A consensus was reached on the necessity for consistent enforcement of these rules throughout the institution.

Conclusion

The meeting concluded with Dr. Shukla expressing gratitude to all members for their active engagement. She underscored the importance of collective efforts in maintaining discipline within the college community.
