WOMENS DAY CELEBRATION REPORT

Date:08/03/2021

Women's Day was celebrated in Sri Krishna Dutt Academy in online mode on 8th March 2021. In the Women's Day debate on the Place of women in ancient Indian society, several key points were discussed. Participants highlighted that ancient Indian society had a complex and diverse treatment of women, with examples ranging from revered female deities in Hinduism to historical figures like Rani Lakshmi Bai and Razia Sultana who held positions of power.

However, it was acknowledged that women in ancient India also faced significant challenges and limitations, such as restrictions on education and property rights, as well as societal norms that often relegated them to subordinate roles within the family and community.

The debate emphasized the importance of understanding the historical context while acknowledging the contributions and agency of women in ancient Indian society. It also called for a critical examination of gender dynamics and the impact of patriarchy on shaping social structures and norms.

Overall, the debate on the place of women in ancient Indian society underscored the need for a nuanced approach to studying and interpreting history, recognizing both the achievements and the struggles of women in shaping the past and influencing the present.
