

Reference No:

Date: 23/05/2024

Policy for scholarship and free ships

The College being self-finance college affiliated to University of Lucknow does not provide any scholarship but do provide all the assistance to the students, including computers with internet connection and human help if required to the students.

Also, the college provides all the important news and notices to the students through e-media and College notice board.

Principal